Be not simply good;
be good for something.

Philosophy

If I should labor through Daylight and Dark
Consecrate, valorious, serious, true,
Then on the world I may blazon my mark;
And what if I don't, and what if I do?

RHONDA ORLYNDA BELL

“Jesus, gold and silver — standing naked in a roomful of modern man. What nerve. Jesus, gold and silver — you have no boots on, and you have no helmet or gun — no briefcase. Powerful Jesus gold and silver with young, thousand-year-old eyes. You look around and you know you must have failed somewhere.”

— Joan Baez

Laugh and all the world laughs with you
Weep and you weep alone;
For the sad, old earth must borrow its
mirth,
But has trouble enough of its own.

— Ella Wheeler Wilcox

AUDREY BETH BERMAN

Dreaming allows us to go safely insane every night.

William Dement

I'm nobody! Who are you?
Are you nobody, too?
Then there's a pair of us — don't tell!
They'd banish us, you know.

How dreary to be somebody!
How public, like a frog
To tell your name the livelong today
To an admiring bog!

Emily Dickinson

The mountains are singing and the Lady comes.

Susan Cooper

Love is not which alters when it

Ursula K. LeGuin

SUSAN LYNN CALHOUN

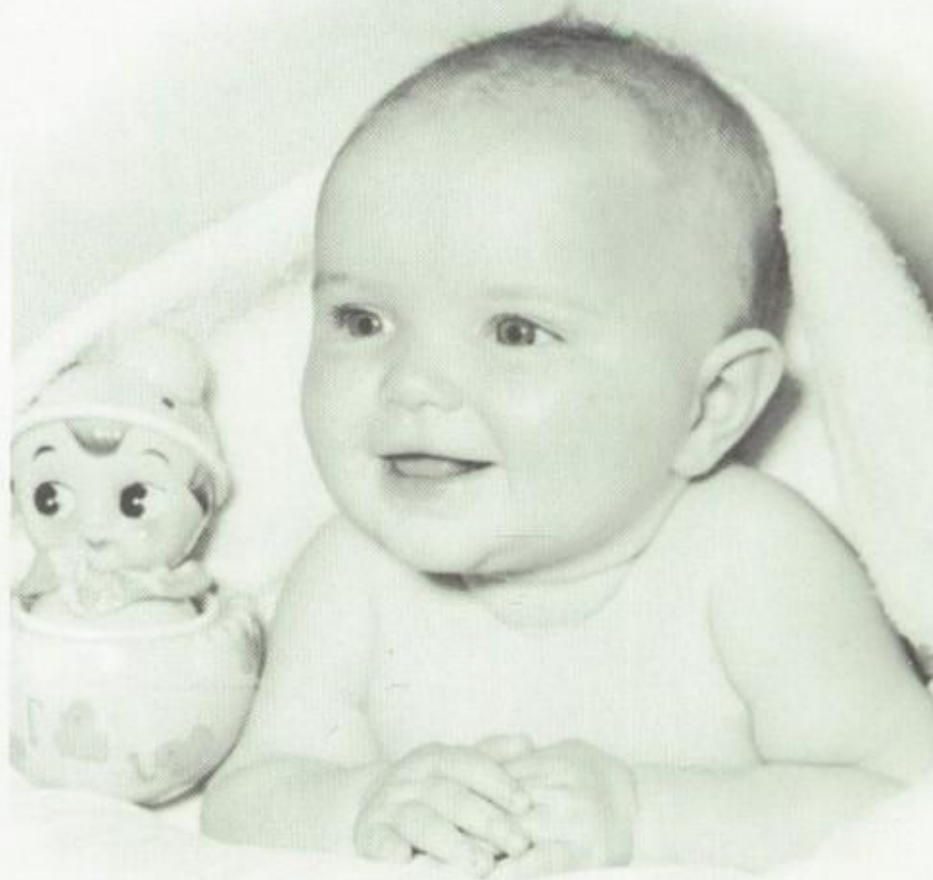

One night a man had a dream. He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the LORD. Across the sky flashed scenes from his life. For each scene, he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand; one belonged to him, and the other the LORD.

When the last scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand. He noticed that many times along the path of his life there was only one set of footprints. He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in his life.

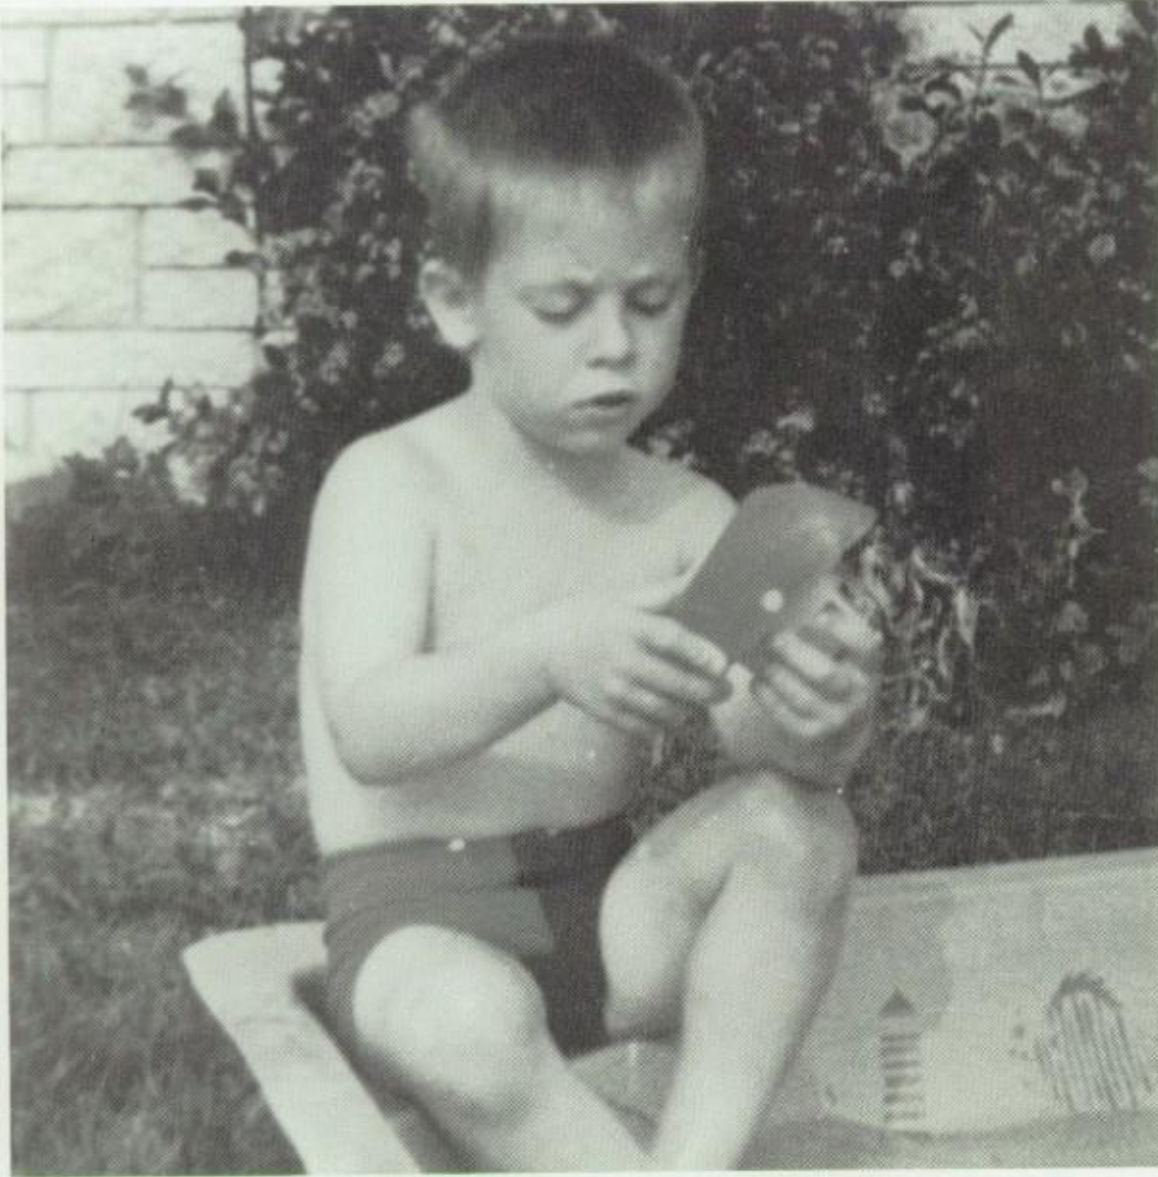

This really bothered him and he questioned the LORD about it. "LORD, you said that once I decided to follow you you'd walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there are only one set of footprints. I don't understand why when I needed you most you would leave me."

The LORD replied, "My precious, precious child. I love you and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."

Notes on Pacifism

A warning to all mankind — “A tyrant must put on the appearance of uncommon devotion to religion. Subjects are less apprehensive of illegal treatment from a ruler whom they consider God fearing and pious. On the other hand, they do less easily move against him, believing that he has the gods on his side.”

George Orwell

I may laugh a lot . . .
Now you'd think I'd be happy with the life I got

And so, we come to an ending . . . too many endings, one to a customer, as they say. "Do I really have to go, Mommy?" "Yes, dear." "Why?" "Because." . . . because, I guess, it's time to come down from the mountain, . . . because, I guess, it's time for a new beginning, . . . because, I guess, we all need another ending to practice our parts in the death scenes we'll all be playing one day, . . . because, I guess, the wheel turns and the person, the life, the tribe — everything ebbs toward the darkness that comes before the light. "So long." (But how long?) So long. We say we'll meet again, and perhaps we will, but we're that old river that you can never step in twice. Next time she'll be different, he'll be gone, and you . . . You'll come out of your world at a different gate, wearing other clothes, carrying other baggage. We hope we'll see you then, but for now let's let the ending happen, so that we can get started on the next chapter of our lives.

The only way to have a friend
Is to be one yourself;
The only way to keep a friend
Is to give from that wealth.
For friendship must be doublefold,
Each one must give his share

The blessings that are there.
If you would say, "He is my friend,"
Then nothing else will do.
But you must say, "I am his friend,"
And prove that fact be true!

days, days I'll always treasure, funny faces

Some stay for awhile and leave footprints

the days of old are far from new.

Faith is near we can't go wrong.

FACULTY

Dear Class of '82,

At the Academy we teach students, and we learn from students. You have taught us much and enriched us thoroughly. Through your art, creative writing, drama, and music you have elevated us. Your academic achievements have distinguished you and us. In athletic competition you have inspired us. Your student officers have led us. But best of all, you have been pleasant, cooperative, productive, and positive. You have carved out a warm, memorable cavern in our hearts where you will remain as favorable memories. Do return often to remind us of your strengths and to brighten our days.

EDWARD BARNES 1916-1981

Ed Barnes was an important figure in the lives of those he touched, and he touched many. His lessons contained knowledge of the type not found in textbooks. He seldom gave answers; he stimulated questions. He encouraged us to look for our own answers, and he knew we could find them everywhere. He taught us to look to nature and discover its many secrets, and to find ourselves in its reflections. He taught us to celebrate the wonders of the individual. Ed Barnes helped each of us to take the first step on the paths to discovering ourselves.

THANK YOU, MRS. CLIPPINGER

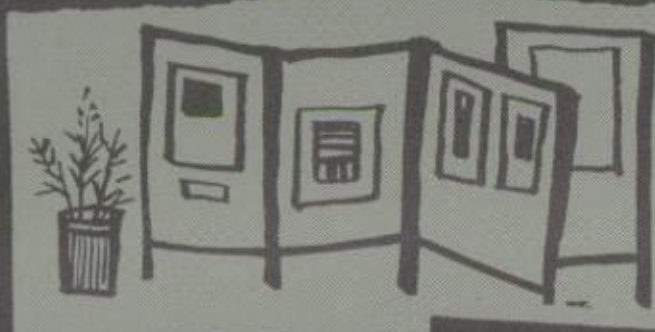

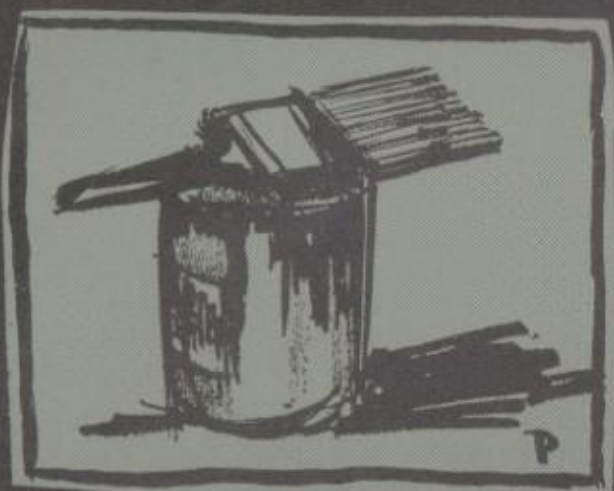

Mrs. Dorothy Clippinger, Academy music teacher for twenty-four years.

"A teacher affects eternity; he can never tell where his influence stops"

— Henry Brooks Adams

Mrs. Clippinger began her teaching career with the Academy in 1958, the last year classes were held at the old campus. Since then, in her own quiet way she had been a tremendous force at our school. Her love for stringed instruments has been inspirational to many students who have excelled and competed at district and statewide levels. She was a true private school teacher, giving freely of her time to the individual. She is a woman with boundless energy, who has accompanied well over two hundred school programs. Along with her busy teaching schedule, she is a member of the "Fine Arts Trio" and the Harrisburg Symphony. We will miss this warm and generous woman who has been a very big part of our school.

"If music be the food of love, play on!"

CREATIVES

ART

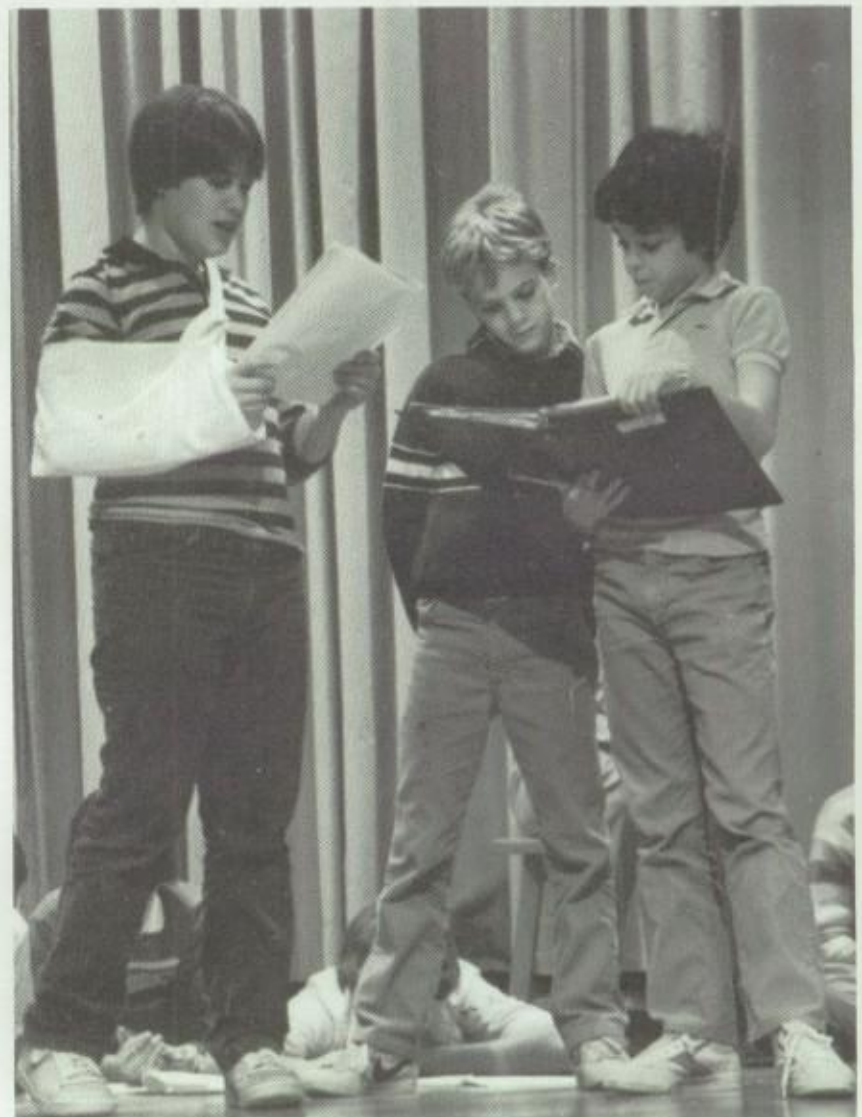

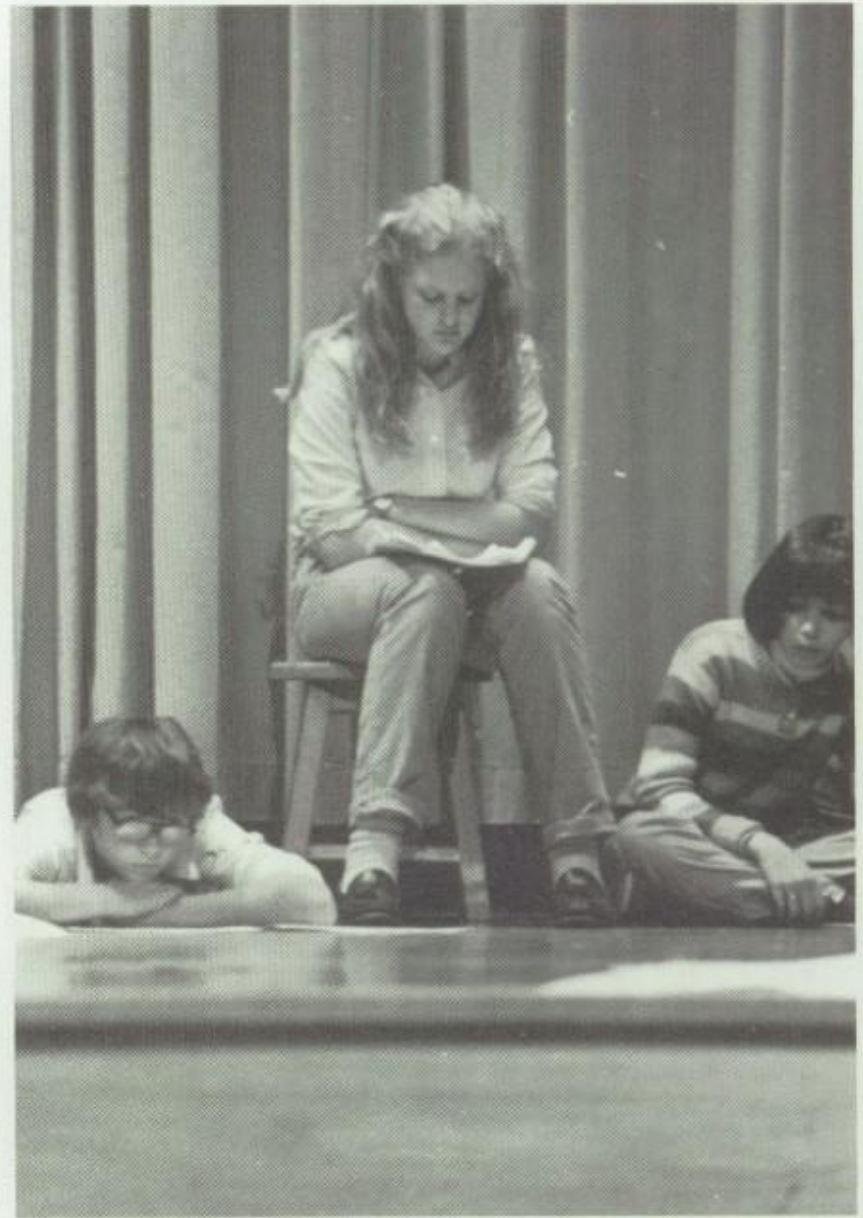

The creative process is a very important part of learning and should be an enjoyable experience. We work with a wide variety of media and the philosophy "We can make anything." Students have produced colorful banners and giant lawn sculptures. A large shark, popsicle, hamburger and fries, banana split and painters pallet decorate our lunchroom and are a result of this idea. Colorful birds fly overhead and examples of pointillistic paintings adorn the walls. We believe art should enhance lives and that it is an important part of our curriculum at the Academy.

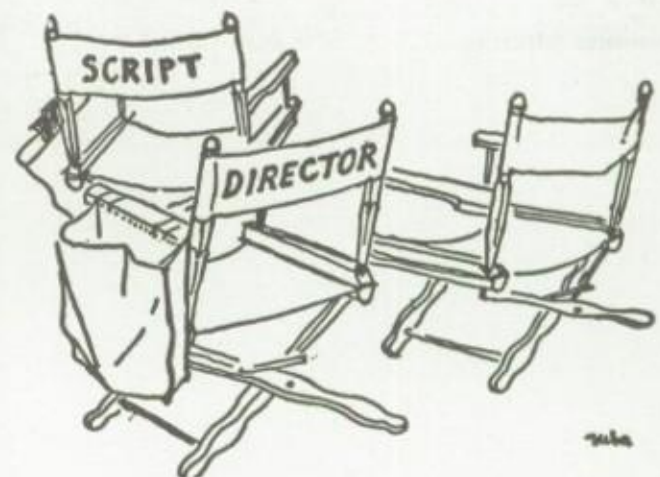

DRAMA

The students at The Academy have always rejoiced in discovering the art of theatre. The 8th grade produced the Taming of the Shrew, while the 9th graders, guided by Mrs. Frederick, realized the importance of technique and began to develop their acting skills. The 10th grade, after careful study of silent films, produced two films of their own. The 11th and 12th grade drama club performed Ionesco's "The Leader." They also presented Peter Shaffer's play "Black Comedy" at the Bucks County drama competition. The 12th grade produced Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night."

MUSIC

To have music you need the composer, the performer and the listener. At The Academy it is our goal to have the students be accomplished in at least one of these disciplines and our greatest hope is to have some quality in all three. Students interested in music may participate in band, chorus and ensemble.

COMBINED ARTS

Based on Creative Rhythmic Movement, Combined Arts is a class where students explore creativity through the interrelated arts. Students create songs, murals, dances, poems, and films. Creative work is related to academic work in science, history, math and language arts.

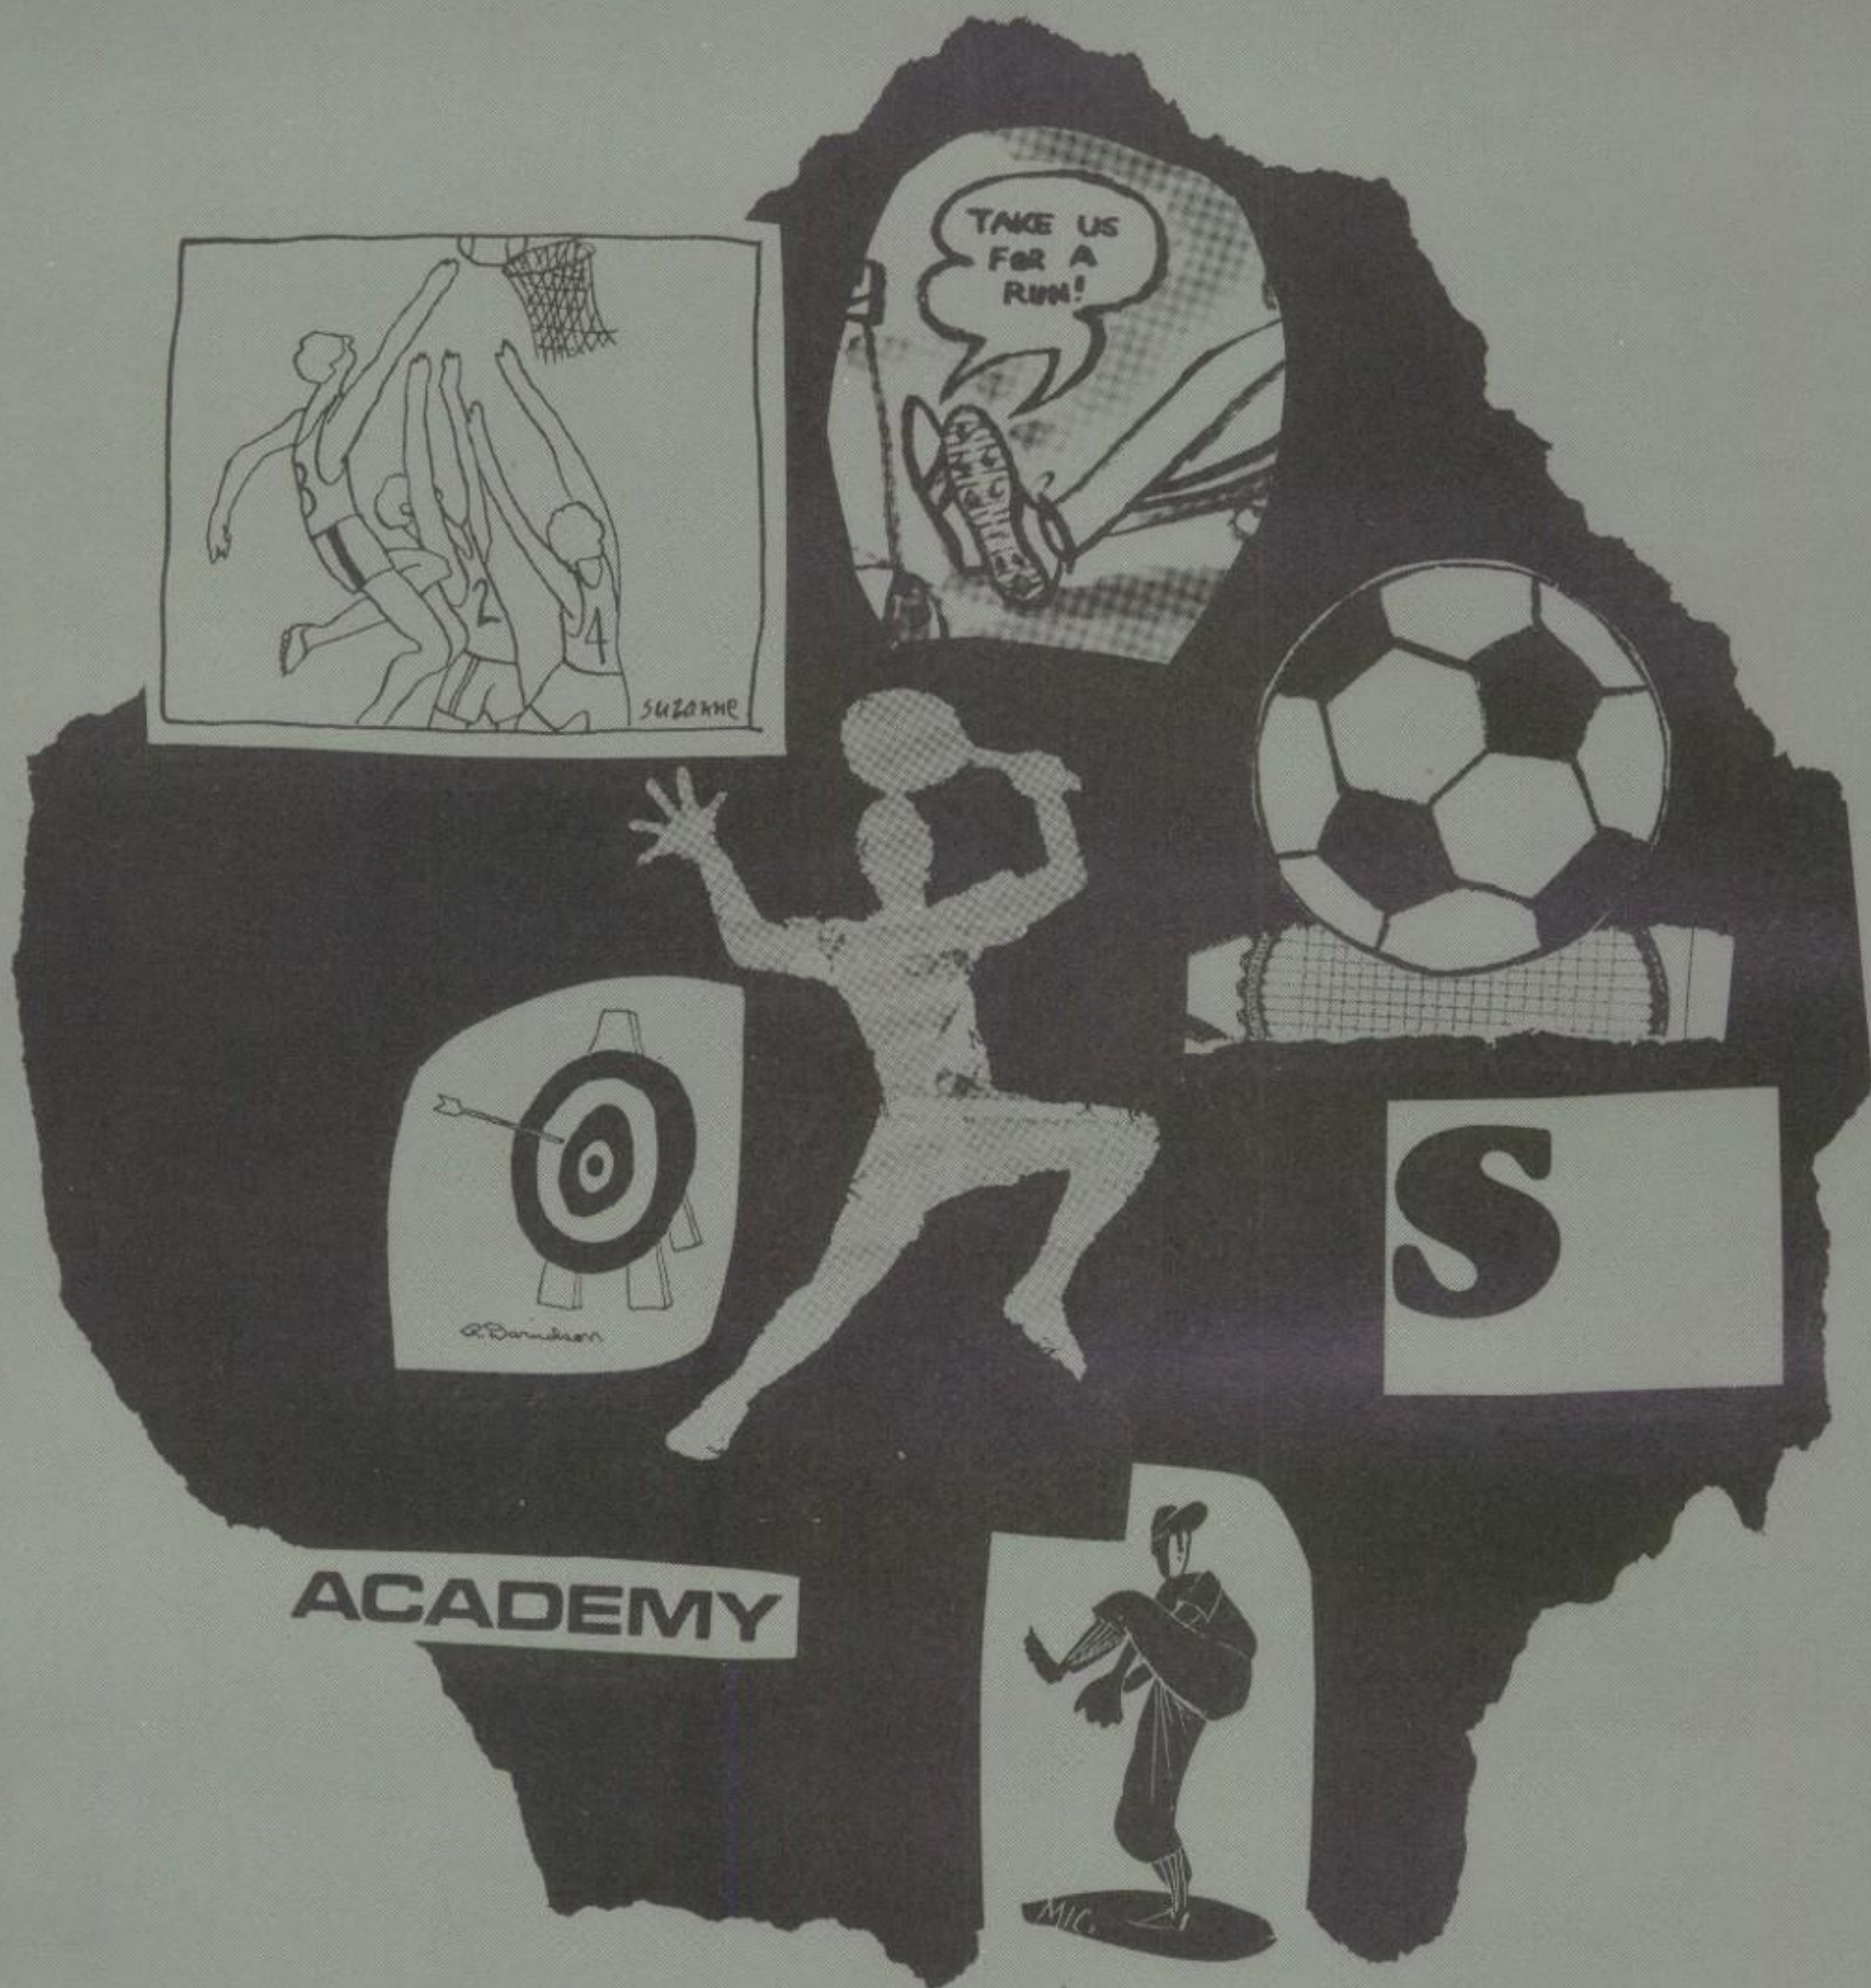

CHORUS AND ENSEMBLE

Sixth grade chorus sings for the Christmas program.

Mrs. Clippinger conducts an ensemble performance.

The soccer team capped a brilliant season by winning the first SIAC Championship. The Spartans posted an 11-2-2 record for 1981, including the school's longest undefeated streak of 9 games. Senior co-captain Joe Gillette led the forwards with 21 goals, a school record. Wing forwards Peter Litton and Brandt Reiter scored 14 and 7 goals, respectively. Peter also added 11 assists to lead the team. Junior Lewis Kunkel helped control the middle of the field, while scoring 13 goals, including 6 head shots. Seniors George Tzanis, Tom Polliard, and Bjorn Thorsteinsson, and co-captain Kevin Swank constituted a formidable defense. Supported by sophomore Lloyd Bartley, the fullbacks shutout opponents 5 times. As the season progressed, so did the Spartans' playing ability. The offense and defense began to work well together and during the latter part of the season, the team played as a cohesive unit. We're proud of our team!

Interest and enthusiasm for lacrosse have grown. In addition to seven starters returning from last year's 9-1 season we are expecting the largest team this school has seen in years. A formidable defense, an explosive attack, and a hardhitting midfield should combine to prove AWESOME! Frankly, we expect very little in the way of competition from the schools we have been scheduled to play. At this moment our coach, George Gonzales, is attempting to arrange a game with John Hopkins' "A" team. We have high hopes for the season.

VARSITY SOFTBALL

The softball team consists of many new members as well as some of last year's starters. This year's team, coached by Steve Stewart, is looking forward to a promising season. We are going to play some very tough teams and we hope to follow in the footsteps of the soccer and basketball teams.

YEARBOOK

A yearbook reflects school life. It is words and pictures and later, memories. To the yearbook staff, each page represents hours of planning, organizing, photographing and designing. We strive for excellence and the finished product is our reward. Sometimes this reward seems miles away when we are fighting deadlines. Only a dedicated few remain when the going gets tough and it's the perseverance of these few that makes the book happen. We are excited about our yearbook and hope you enjoy it.
